REMARKS

I was advised today by Mr. Ira Penn, the Awards Coordinator for the FEDERAL RECORDS AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT AWARD, that the award has been discontinued. They discontinued it last year and no notification was sent out. We will need to advise [redacted] office of this.

STATINTL

I've advised [redacted] TO DROP THIS FROM THE DRAFT OF HHB [redacted] WHICH SHE IS HOLDING.

Ira Penn called me this morning. They have discontinued this award. If it is ever started again, we will receive notification and requests for nominees.

Finally, after seven different numbers, I found the correct person to talk with. He is out of town but his secretary, Judy, will have him call me on Friday, 3 December.

She doesn't think they are going to continue this award.

STAT

Called 376-8806 today to speak with the Awards Coordinator, Ira Penn. The number is no longer correct and I spoke with someone from the Social Security Administration.

I wanted to inquire when letters requesting nominations would come out. It appears we did not receive one last year. We have a nomination  this year.
